

From November 3-6, 2015 were held the first focus group discussions under the "Crossroads of Development" project by Ministry of Sport And Youth Affairs and Centre for Community Mobilization and Support (CCMS) NGO. The focus group discussions were held in Alaverdi, Arevatsag, Akori, Qarinj and Chochkan communities, the goal of which is to raise the problems of communities. Then will be made a package of proposals for the solutions to the problems that were held during the discussions.

Focus -Group discussion brought together participants from different social groups. The focus group discussions were very active and many participants expressed their readiness to cooperate with YVC members.

The suggested reforms are under preparation, after which there will be made a package of proposals for each community, which will be presented during the communities' public hearings.
