

On April 21, 2016 in the office of “Centre for Community Mobilization and Support” (CCMS) NGO was held “Youth voice for change and development” Armenian and Georgian cross-border project’s meeting between 10 students and 10 teachers from Tumanyan and Stepanavan regions.

This is the first meeting of students and teachers in collaboration with the project managers. During the meeting they discussed the results and impressions of previous meetings, they decided who will work with each school.

“Youth Voice for Change and Development” project is implemented in Georgian Marneuli and Bolnisi and in Tumanyan and Stepanavan regions of marz Lori in Armenia with the support of “Society of Democratic Women of Marneuli” NGO, “Centre for Community Mobilization and Support” NGO, “Civitas Georgca” NGO and European Union.

